

Massimo has a MD degree at University of Pavia and a Post-graduate internship at the Vienna University; residency in Hematology at University of Ferrara and Post-Doctoral Associate at St. Jude Children Hospital in Memphis (USA). He is Full Professor and Director of the Oncology Division and of the Residency School in Oncology at the University Hospital of Modena and Reggio Emilia (Modena). Since 2005 he is heading the Laboratory of Cellular Therapies with over 15 Mio € in research grants, 224 papers, more than 35000 citations and an H-index of 54, 12 patents. More than 200 invited lectures. Founder of Rigenerand srl, now Evotec Modena. Co-founder of the Forum of Italian Researcher on MSC (FIRST). Former board member of JACIE, WBMT and scientific advisor for the Italian Minister of Health. Member of ISCT, ASCO, ESMO, AACR. He has been President of ISCT 2014-2016, Emeritus Member of ISCT and now Member of the ISCT Strategic Advisory Council. From October 2019 expert advisory Panel member of the INN of the World Health Organization in Genève.