

Dr. Santra is a Professor at the University of Central Florida holding a joint appointment with the NanoScience Technology Center and the Department of Chemistry. He is the founding director of UCF Materials Innovation for Sustainable Agriculture (MISA) Center. He has been actively working in the field of Nanoscience and Nanotechnology for over 20 years focusing on nanoagriculture and nanomedicine areas. He has published 93 peer-reviewed research articles, 7 review articles, 11 book chapters and delivered 96 invited talks. He has been awarded 34 patents including 26 US patents. His research has been funded by NSF, USDA, Citrus Research and Development Foundation, Environmental Research and Education Foundation and several industries with a portfolio of over $5.6M research funding.